

TARRANT COUNTY TAX OFFICE CLOSES ALL LOCATIONS (04/06/20)

All Tax Office locations will be closed until further notice. The Tarrant County Commissioners Court has issued a “Stay at Home” order until April 30th. Therefore, for the safety and well-being of our staff, all Tax Office locations will be closed until further notice. There is one drop box location in the lobby of the Tarrant County Administration Building located at 100 E. Weatherford Street in Fort Worth. Tarrant County Credit Union drop boxes are no longer available.

Today, we face a new challenge to not only the way we do business but to our daily lives – at work and at home.

As the coronavirus COVID-19 has grown to pandemic levels, we want to be certain you know the many ways we work to protect the health and safety of our employees, and you, our customer, while stabilizing our business for this new normal.

Part of that shift in business is state and local governments mandating business closures and community ‘shutdowns’ while identifying “essential businesses” that can remain open and operational.

Commissioners Court has enacted a “Stay at Home” order until April 30th unless terminated or modified by a subsequent Order. Therefore, for the safety and well-being of our staff, all Tax Office locations will be closed until further notice. This is our community mitigation strategy to help flatten the curve as evidenced by the rising of active cases in Tarrant County.

You may still make payments. We are encouraging you to utilize our online services or USPS to carry out your business with us. You can find important information on our website. We can answer email on a limited basis by contacting us at taxoffice@tarrantcounty.com. We will attempt to respond within 72 hours.

All mail and web payments will be processed as of the date received or postmarked once we resume normal business processes.

Please note that no tax assessor-collector has the authority to waive penalties and interest, or to extend a statutory deadline on property tax. The Texas State Legislature has sole authority to make changes in penalties, interest or due dates.

It is impossible at this point to know how long this crisis might last, but we hope you know that we are dedicated to do all we can to protect our employees and customers.

Effective Monday, April 6, the only drop box location available is in the lobby of the Tarrant County Administration Building located at 100 E. Weatherford Street in Fort Worth. Credit union drop boxes are no longer available.

We are #TarrantCountyStrong and together we can get through this difficult time.
